From the Police Chief

March 2011

Hello Residents of North Bend,

The sun is out, the skies are blue, and the mountain tops are dusted with spring snow as the clouds skirt across the horizon, trying to decide if they will shower us with rain or simply honor us with their presence. There aren't too many places that can compete with North Bend for the sheer beauty of our surroundings. It is a pleasure to come to work each day when you have views like this in every direction. The close-knit community feeling we have in this City is icing on the cake.

It is the time of year when we provide you with this Annual Police Service Report. Much of the report is statistical data and charts, presented in such a manner as to clearly diagram the effectiveness of the police services that we provide. Despite the increase in city size and population as a result of the annexations in the area, I am very pleased to see that our crime trends are dropping in almost all areas.

Last year I listed a few goals that we focused on for 2010. The first goal was the creation of a prescription drug disposal program for the area. The program is up and running, with more than 130 pounds of prescription drugs safely disposed of so far. The program will continue, so just bring your unwanted or unused prescription drugs to the police station during business hours for disposal.

Another goal we had last year will continue as long as I am here – that is establishing and maintaining business contacts in the city. I enjoy meeting and talking with the community, learning about the area, the businesses, and the direction that people would like to see us go.

In an effort to improve traffic safety we have been awarded several State grants, including nearly $10,000 worth of equipment and staffing time to focus on speeding, DUI, and traffic enforcement.

In 2011, we will continue to work with you to maintain a community that is safe and pleasant, and a source of pride for us all. I encourage all community members to contact me with any questions, concerns, or ideas that could assist us all to reach these goals.

Thank you,
Mark Toner, Chief of Police

City Cost Comparison

The city cost comparison study is conducted annually by the King County Sheriff's Office Contracts Unit. The study accounts for city budget differences and may factor in (or factor out) certain line items in an effort to allow for "apples-to-apples" comparison between cities. North Bend's cost per capita shown here is different than the contract cost per capita, which only includes North Bend's law enforcement contract paid to the county. The following budget information is obtained directly from the city's budget, which may include funding for extra police services.

| City   | 2009 Crime Rate | 2010 Police Budget | 2010 Census Population | 2010 Budgeted Sworn | Cost/ Capita | Cost/ Sworn      | Sworn/ 1000 |

Vehicle theft

Vehicle theft is included in Part I Crimes against Property. It is the theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle, which is defined as being self-propelled and running on a land surface and not on rails. Motorboats, construction equipment, airplanes, and farming equipment are specifically excluded from this category.

Part I & II Cases Closed by Arrest

The cases below represent incidents where an officer or detective has recommended that the King County Prosecutor's Office file criminal charges against the case suspect. These criminal charges may result in an arrest or another form of punitive action, such as a citation. A prosecuting attorney is solely responsible for the decision to formally file charges and prosecute defendants.

Adult and Juvenile Charges and Arrests

One or more charges can result from a single arrest. Charges also can be filed when probable cause exists against a person who may not have been arrested. The following are the total number of felony and misdemeanor charges and arrests by adult and juvenile status.

Calls for Police Assistance

The public receives police assistance in a variety of ways. People can call the Emergency 911 Communications Center to have one or more officers dispatched to the field, called a “dispatched call for service.” The public can also be assisted when an officer witnesses or “on-views” an accident, crime, or other police need in the field.

In addition to dispatched calls for service and on-views, 911 center operators can take certain types of reports over the phone through alternative call handling (ACH). This allows police officers more time to respond to those who need an officer present at the location of their incident.

Following are the numbers of dispatched calls for service (DCFS), on-views, and alternative call handling (ACH) incidents reported.

Dispatched Calls For Service (DCFS): The number of DCFS shown here includes calls that are verified to take place inside the city limits and that are charged to the city as part of its police contract. Total DCFS counts, as shown in the Police Service Data section, may be slightly higher (usually less than 5 percent higher).

Response Times to High Priority Calls

When calls for police assistance are received by the Emergency 911 Communications Center, they are entered into the Computer Aided Dispatch (CAD) system and given a "priority" based on the criteria described below. If the call receiver is in doubt as to the appropriate priority, the call is assigned the higher of the two priority designators in question.

"Priority X" designates critical dispatches. These are incidents that pose an obvious danger to the life of an officer or citizen. It is used for felony crimes in-progress where the possibility of confrontation between a victim and suspect exists. Examples include shootings, stabbings, robberies or burglaries.

"Priority 1" designates immediate dispatches. These are calls that require immediate police action. Examples include silent alarms, injury traffic accidents, in-progress crimes or crimes so recent that the suspect may still be in the immediate area.

"Priority 2" designates prompt dispatches. These are calls that could escalate to a more serious degree if not policed quickly. Examples include verbal disturbances and blocking traffic accidents.

Following are the City of North Bend's Police response times for the above priority calls. Response times include all time from the receipt of a phone call to the moment an officer arrives at the location of the incident.

Commissioned Officers per 1,000 Residents

Commissioned officers per 1,000 residents shows how many commissioned police officers are employed by North Bend for every 1,000 residents. This number includes commissioned officers who work in supervisory or other non-patrol related positions as well as special services officers who work part-time for the city. It does not include professional (i.e. non-commissioned) support staff.

Dispatched Calls for Service (DCFS) per Patrol Officer

Dispatched calls for service (DCFS) per patrol officer is the average number of dispatched calls one patrol officer responds to within a year. This number uses only dispatched calls North Bend pays for and does not include the number of responses an officer initiates (such as witnessing and responding to traffic violations, called "on views"). Also, the numbers below are patrol only and exclude non-patrol commissioned officers (such as supervisors or special duty officers/detectives).

Costs of Police Services per Capita

The City of North Bend contracts with the King County Sheriff's Office (KCSO) for police services. Among other benefits, contracting for services from a larger law enforcement agency allows for cost savings through "economies of scale." Specific economies of scale provided through the contract with KCSO include:

- Mutual aid agreements with other law enforcement agencies in Washington State
- A large pool of officers if back-up help is necessary
- Coverage if city officers are away
- Expertise of specialized units to assist officers
- More experienced officers to select from for city staffing
- Cost sharing throughout the department to keep city costs down

Costs for police services vary depending on a city's resources and the level and type of police services the community wants. The City of North Bend may have additional funds or expenditures for special projects or programs as part of the city's law enforcement budget. These additional costs are not reflected in the contract cost per capita, which shows the contract cost for police services divided by North Bend's population.

Complaints against Officers

Complaints against city police officers can originate from the public or internal police department personnel. When a complaint is made, the King County Sheriff's Office Internal Investigations Unit (IIU), which reports directly to the Sheriff, will review the complaint and determine whether a formal complaint investigation should be made. The following are the total number of internal and external complaints that were formally investigated for City of North Bend officers:
